Weekend Report from R8

Attorney Generals Visit to Gold King Mine -- AG Cynthia Coffman (CO) and AG Sean Reyes (UT) have asked to tour the Gold King Mine. I have coordinated the visit through David Ostrander, JIC and UAC, as well as through OGC. The AGs would like visit on Wednesday, however we may need to push the visit up a day as work on the mine using heavy equipment is planned beginning Wednesday. I plan to fly back down in order to accompany the AGs and benefit from the tour myself--something I was unable to do last week.

Director of the R8 Montana Office -- Deb and I will be announcing to staff this week that Julie DalSoglio, director of our office in Helena, will move into a new, non-supervisory role. She will be an adviser and report to Joan Card. For an interim period Deb will serve as the Acting Montana Office Director in addition to continuing her responsibilities as the Deputy Regional Administrator. Carson Coate and Joe Vranka will continue to serve in their front line supervisory roles. This is a move that should be well received by the MT staff and union.
